Ten Things You Wish You Would Have Known When You Started in Compliance and Ethics

Marjorie W. Doyle, JD, CCEP-F, CCEP-I
Marjorie Doyle & Associates, LLC

Odell Guyton, JD, CCEP, CCEP-I
Co-Chair, SCCE Advisory Board
Vice President, Global Compliance, Jabil Circuit, Inc.

Daniel R. Roach, JD
Co-Chair, SCCE Advisory Board
General Counsel, Optum360°

Moderated by Lizza Catalano, CCEP, Conference Planner, SCCE

1. Compliance Is Not My Responsibility
2. I am a Lifeguard not a Cop
3. Make a Business Plan
4. It’s Impossible to Eliminate Risks
5. Good People Do Bad Things
6. Understand Management Role
7. The General Counsel and I have to be Partners
8. I Have to Spend So Much Time Defining and Defending My Role as Compliance Officer
9. Compliance is Never Celebrated
10. Appreciate our Role and our Community
Tweet your top ten or share an experience or lesson using:

#ceitopoten